Lisbon, September 21, N. S.

FOR theſe three Weeks paſt Workmen have been continually employed in building new Stables at the Royal Palace for about 200 Horſes: And an Apartment is fitting up with the ſame Expedition, as it is ſaid, for the Prince of Brazil; whoſe Houſhold it is thought will be appointed by his Portugueſe Majeſty before the Marqueſs de los Balbaſes arrives from Spain. He is expected here before the End of November, and 'tis believed the Marqueſs de Abrantes will ſet out for Madrid the Beginning of the ſame Month. Orders were iſſued laſt Week for the advancing of Sixty Thouſand Crowns to the ſaid Marqueſs de Abrantes, for the Expence of his Journey to the Court of Spain; and his Appointments are ſettled at Five Thouſand Crowns a Month. Advice being come, that the Fleet which ſailed from hence in February laſt for the Rio de Janeiro, arrived ſafely there on the 15th of April, and would be ready to return to Portugal in the June following, the Victoria a Sixty Gun Ship has been fitted out, and will ſail from hence To-morrow, in order to cruize as far as the Weſtern Iſlands, and there wait the Arrival of the ſaid Fleet, and ſtrengthen their Convoy.

Paris, Sept. 28. On the 22d Inſtant the King went into Mourning for the Death of Prince Maximilian of Hanover, which had been notified to his Majeſty by his Excellency Mr. Walpole the Britiſh Ambaſſadour. The King has been ſome Days at Fontainebleau, and the Queen ſetting out from Verſailles the 25th Inſtant, arrived the next Day at Fontainebleau, having lain one Night at Petit-Bourg, a Seat of the Duke d'Antin's. His Majeſty having made the Marſhal Duke de Tallard, and the Marſhal d'Huxelles, Councellours, they both took their Places in the Council of State on the 25th Inſtant. On the 22d the Marſhal d'Eſtrées ſet out from hence, in order to preſide in the Aſſembly of the States of Britany. The General Aſſembly of the Clergy of France was opened here the 25th, in the Church of the Convent of the Auguſtines.

Whitehall, Sept. 3. 1726.

Whereas on Friday the Eighth Day of July laſt, about Eleven a-Clock at Night, there came on Wakefield Lawn, in His Majeſty's Foreſt of Whittlewood, in the County of Northampton, about Eighteen Men, moſt of them on Horſeback, one of them on a grey Hunting-like Horſe, with a very long ſwitch Tail, many of them having Fire-Arms and other Weapons of ſeveral Sorts, with three or four Brace of Greybounds or Running Dogs, one of which being a dark brindled Dog or Bitch with a cut Tail, was ſhot by the Keepers; and whereas the ſaid Perſons did kill and carry away
